

RESOURCE

Solomon Islands Development Integrated Financing Framework (SIIFF)

|

Description / Abstract

The SIIFF is designed to articulate a holistic approach to mobilising and investing the finance that is needed to realise the objectives of the NDS through institutional coordination, public-private collaboration and policy reforms. It is envisaged that the SIIFF will also play an important role in supporting the smooth transition process for country's graduation from Least Developed Countries (LDC) status.

Publication year

2018

Country

Solomon Islands

Region

Oceania

Publisher

Government of the Solomon Islands - Ministry of Development Planning and Aid Coordination

Keywords

mobilising finance Financial Instruments

Thematic Tagging

Climate Ecosystems/Nature-based solutions Gender Private Sector Transboundary Urban Water services Youth

Language English

View resource

Related IWRM Tools

● Tool

Integrated National Financing Frameworks

D2.01

Source
URL: <https://iwrmaactionhub.org/resource/solomon-islands-development-integrated-financing-framework-siiff>